

“EXTREME” Hotshots

The Victorian Tennis Academy “EXTREME” Squad tennis lessons are designed for students aged 11+. Extreme Squad members will be selected in groups of 4 players per court. A high level of commitment and professionalism is expected of extreme squad members who should complement their lessons with regular competition and tournament play.

The program aims to teach students technical, tactical and match play skills to prepare them for regular competition tennis. Players at this level are encouraged to play weekly competitions and Private lessons are also recommended at this stage. An emphasis on developing a love for the game, co-ordination and team activities also helps with the overall enjoyment of this program.
